

Poi Dog Pondering - Iâ€™ve Got My Body

{Verse 1}

I've got my body

I've got my soul

I have so much to learn

Now this I know

I might have eyes

I might have fingers and toes

But tell me what good are all those things

If you ain't got your soul

{Verse 2}

I've got my body

I've got my soul

Someday I might have a million dollars

Then again I might have only one change of clothes

Now you may deal in silver

Now you may deal in gold

But tell me what good are all those things

If you ain't got your soul

So cut me bleeding down fallen

If I should rob from my soul

Let the sight of blood remind me

Of the truths I do know

Like the fleeting hold the body has

On the soul

On the soul

{Verse 3}

I've got my body

I've got my soul

Help me keep it true

Help me keep it straight

Help me to keep hold
And cut me bleeding down fallen
If I should rob from my soul
And let the sight of blood remind me
Of the truths I do know

{Bridge}

'Cause every time you lie deceive or cheat
You lose a little bit
Lose a little bit
Lose a little bit of your soul
Of your soul

{Instrumental}

{Bridge}

And every time you lie deceive or cheat
You lose a little bit
You lose a little bit
Lose a little bit of your soul
You lose a little bit
Lose a little bit
Lose a little bit of your soul

{Verse 4}

Cut me bleeding down fallen (Lose a little bit, lose a little bit)
If I should rob from my soul (Lose a little bit of your soul)
And let the sight of blood remind me
(Lose a little bit, lose a little bit)
Of the truths I do know (Lose a little bit of your soul)
I like the fleeting hold the body has
(Lose a little bit, lose a little bit)
On the soul (Lose a little bit of your soul)
On the soul

{Outro}

I've got my body

I've got my soul

I've got my body

I've got my soul

I've got my body

I've got my soul

I've got my body

I've got my soul (Soul soul soul soul soul)
