

Dylan - Nothing Lasts Forever

{Verse 1}

You say that you care about me
Calm down, it's been under two weeks
Stop tryna fix whatever you think you see
When you see nothing at all
You fell off your chair when I said
That I wanted to kiss all your friends
But life's short, and ultimately everything ends
So I don't care anymore

{Pre-Chorus}

You think that we're falling into love
But I'm not (I'm not), so get up (Get up)

{Chorus}

Don't be so dramatic
Come on, get it together
When you gonna figure out
That nothing ever lasts forever, forever, forever
Hopelessly romantic
But you're not very clever
That nothing ever lasts forever, forever, forever

{Verse 2}

Blind drunk and back to your place
Sober up from the look on your face
As you try and work out my emotional state
When there is nothing at all

{Pre-Chorus}

You think that we're falling into love (Love)

I'm not (I'm not), so get off (Get off)

{Chorus}

Don't be so dramatic

Come on, get it together

That nothing ever lasts forever, forever, forever

Hopelessly romantic

But you're not very clever

That nothing ever lasts forever, forever, forever

{Post-Chorus}

Nothing ever lasts, nothing lasts forever

Nothing ever lasts, nothing lasts forever

Nothing ever lasts, nothing lasts forever

Nothing ever lasts, nothing lasts forever

{Bridge}

(Nothing ever lasts, nothing lasts forever) Self love, joy, security

(Nothing ever lasts, nothing lasts forever) Childhood dreams and purity

(Nothing ever lasts, nothing lasts forever) Sex, pay cheques, relationships

(Nothing ever lasts, nothing lasts forever) Everything will go to shit

{Pre-Chorus}

Don't be so dramatic

Come on, get it together

That nothing ever lasts forever, forever, forever

{Chorus}

Don't be so dramatic

Come on, get it together

That nothing ever lasts forever, forever, forever

Hopelessly romantic

But you're not very clever

That nothing ever lasts forever, forever, forever
