

The Burns Sisters - Follow

I know you're leaving this little town
Your dreams are calling and they must be found
Back to your city by the ocean side
Let the waves and water fill your life

I know I'll miss you when you go away
Maybe more than I should but I can't ask you to stay
You carried me through some troubled times
Misty mountains so hard to climb

Follow the sound of your heart
When darkness feels stronger than light
When worlds fall apart
Never alone shall you cry
Open your eyes
May all of the dreams that you dream come to be
Set them free, set them free, set them free
May your whispers be heard, may your prayers reach the sky
Let them fly, let them fly, let them fly

Behind your silence I heard you
With the song of a child so fragile and true
Forgotten laughter filled my soul
Echoed tomorrows of long ago

Cool sunny mornings by my garden wall
Secrets we spilled they sure have grown up tall
The red, red roses of summer rain
Will never open till we meet again

Follow the sound of your heart

When darkness feels stronger than light

When worlds fall apart

Never alone shall you stand

Open your hand

May all of your tears carry on to the sea

Set them free, set them free, set them free

May the angels, in time, lift us over goodbye

Let them fly, let them fly, let them fly

May all of the dreams that you dream come to be

Set them free, set them free, set them free

May your whispers be heard, may your prayers reach the sky

Let them fly, let them fly, let them fly
