Lyrics from snippet

{intro}

Qrn

And i'm on mars right now

{chorus}

Where would i be without this watch?

Where would i be without this chain?

Where would i be without my dawg?

Where would i be without my gang?

Where would i be if me and pabb' ain't never took that flight to la?

He'll be right here with me, nigga, instead of in the grave (woah-woah)

In the grave (woah-woah)

In the grave

Lord knows, sometimes, i pray ('times, i pray)

'times, i pray ('times, i pray)

'times, i pray

{?} drop to my knees and pray (i just pray)

I just pray, i just pray

Lil' more of drink went down this drain

Down this drain (down this drain)

Down this drain (down this drain)

Down this drain

{verse}

Heart broke, they don't know what i'm feelin'

My goal's take the top to the ceilin'

{?} spoke on my nigga, we out of the window, hit him with extensions

Okay, it's plenty problems on my mental

I guess that i'm a product of the trenches

I took a whole lot, made more money, know {?}
Niggas be cappin', takin' care of women
Don't do shit for they family, or neither they nigga
Maserati truck, i think it's a rental
My bro get away, he the realest
When i walk through the door, i'm smilin'
It's a quarter, the folks hangin' with killers
The real ones label me the realest
