

Crabb Family - Ordinary Christmas

In the morning, they say the snow will fall
Families will gather, one and all
Oh, what a season, oh, what a reason
Another ordinary Christmas

Dad will be laughing about the gifts he gave
There's a child in everyone, even at his age
Everybody's grateful to the Savior who is faithful
Another ordinary Christmas

There was nothing ordinary about the baby in the manger
That was born so very long ago
His mother was a virgin and His father God almighty
Salvation for the whole world to behold
In the evening, the story will be read
ThÐµn standing hand in hand, we'll bow our heads
All will remÐµmber that birthday in December
Another ordinary Christmas
