

Adam Ford - Honestly

{verse 1}

On the track with jacob lethal

Last summer i was dressing like i'm vinny diesel

This summer my attire has been very regal

Friends turning twenty one, now they're smoking legal

But a couple off that poison they've been smoking weedle

Spinarak with the attack like i'm some kinda beetle

Ct duggie's going down, rip the eagle

I just want some winning time, shoutout jason segel

{chorus}

Honestly, wanna see you show some honesty

Just promise me, that you won't lie to me consciously

Honestly, wanna see you show some honesty

Just promisĐµ me, that you won't lie to me consciously

{verse 2}

Politicking with sĐµb and wac, should maybe bring it back

Got some large amounts with rohan, david, eric and dax

Walking in with hermit, saw winnie sprint on the track

Nikhil's chilling with some wet boyz, don't know where he's at

So established that i reference myself in lines

Caught a charge in february, but it wasn't a crime

Representing myself, i beat a three digit fine

Feel the bern at the polls, that's who i stood behind

Independent as of now, cause i've yet to be signed

Looking like i'm xandar sanders, with the soul patch of mine

Real beast, to newt scamander i am something to find

I just pulled up in a lander with some alien kind

{break}

Honestly, i should play â€œem like a magnavox odyssey

Just promise me, i'm somebody that you wanna see

{verse 3}

To those in the comments typing the 12th letter
Absorb what i say like you work with the wrecker
Never think of me to be one of the lesser
I'm the best on the track with no varsity letter
No letter of intent either, staying where i am
I've been cohen, i been pushing to the max man
Use to keep a soaker, now i got a faz-cam
Bars make â€œem dizzy, now they need a cat scan
Let's just be honest like we're kid ink and dej loaf
Like i'm giannis, lately i've been showing real growth
It dawned upon me that nothing was gonna change though
Put it behind us, now there's no fear to say no
You're really ducking me, the convo's blue
But way before that there was in a change in you
When during last break you gave a lame excuse
And this isn't fabricated, what i say is true

{chorus}

Honestly, wanna see you show some honesty
Just promise me, that you won't lie to me consciously
Honestly, wanna see you show some honesty
Just promise me, that you won't lie to me consciously

{outro}

Politicking with seb and wac, should maybe bring it back
Got some large amounts with rohan, david, eric and dax
Walking in with hermit, saw winnie sprint on the track
Nikhil's chilling with some wet boyz, don't know where he's at
