

Lil Purple - Cuddersback

{Verse}

Ya'll don't know me, my names Purple
Flow so wet, you can call me squirtle
Flow in that beach, swimming out in Myrtle
Flow so clean Listerine I gurgle
Flow like the wind floating over hurdles
Call me Donatello I'm a mutant ninja turtle
Rappers watch out, so I'mma go alert all
Purp's like a religion and I'mma go convert y'all
Rule number one, Purp's the fuckin man
If you don't understand you're a jackass like Bam
Rule number two, AGL's the fuckin man
If you disagree you're gon' meet his closed hand
Rule number three, better smoke a lotta weed
Now how's that sound this a sweet fuckin creed
Rule number four, Purple's what you bleed
If your offbeat then purp's not what you believe
Feed of all the hatred, that's rule number five
At the end of the day we all gon' survive
Bro's before hoes, that rule number six
Sorry all you chicks, but you can still get on my dick
Rule number seven, we all go to heaven
Purp is Almighty so I might be like Evan
Rule number eight, take a shot straight
If you can't do it you gon' hate to hear your fate
On to rule nine you gotta rhyme all the time
I don't care if you can't rap but you still gotta try
And rule number ten, have some common sense
If you don't respect women you a pussy on the fence
Yeah you know I say it, but take no offense

I love women more than a nympho loves sex
Shout out to my man Spence, Hagrid, dubstepperson
And my boy Goggin he rolls wit the best of them
My homies PK, Ian, both the Luke's and Monte
Murtha, PMoons, JayMe, Devin, EB and Scotty
Fuck the kids who dis man they chicken teriyaki
They try to knock me over but I fight back like karate
To everybody listening I can fill up your prescription
This Acrifa mixtape is gon be your next addiction
Cancel your subscriptions, my lyrics what your reading
Take a listen through and then tell me how you're feeling
Now you know me, and you know my means
Pick and choose sides are you with me on my team
Go and grab a glass, go and grab a bag
Sip it real slow and grab a pack of zig zags
Cause this Acirfa man, relaxation to the max
If you enjoy good music you'll like my shit that's a fact
So kick back and relax, grab a six pack
Cause You Only Live Once, YOLO, that a wrap
