

Lil Purple - Purple Rain

{Verse 1: Lil Purple}

I'm feeling like Mike after game six nineteen 98
Or like Mike after he won his eighth gold medal race
So yeah I'm feeling real good
Like a kid's childhood or like Ali when he stood
Tall, Cassius Clay, picture frame, on my wall every day
Boy I was made to play, sleigh like a holiday
Don't gimme that knife cause I was meant to filet
Disobey is written all over my resume but hey
That's the way I was made, cooking rhymes like gourmet
Let me serve you a scoop of Purp's sorbet
It's got the most flavor, so savor
The taste in your mouth, cause I'm a lifesaver
Bet you know what color, hold up let me clarify
Purple be the one, you know I had to verify
The clouds so soft cause I just got very high
Off the Purple rain feel the strain till ya terrified

{Hook: Lil Purple}

Let the Purple rain drain your veins
Let your brain fall a sleep, Mary Jane
Ease the pain, as the rain runs down your cheeks
Running deep with emotions flared up for weeks
Let the Purple seep through your soul
Take a stroll, bring a bowl cause we're
In full control like we on a roll, yup, on a roll, yup

{Verse 2: Lil Purple}

I'm feeling smart like I'm at your temple like Soloman

Swallowing your thoughts as your mind tries following
My style and my grief, when I smile and when I sleep
Everybody on the purple bandwagon grab a seat
Room for infinity, smoke in the vicinity
If you new to my style you gonna lose your virginity
You dislike my shit, man you must be kidding me
You probably like that Blue Slide Park, like you a kid to me
Man that music's killing me, so are ya feeling me
I guarantee your bumping me staring at the ceiling see
I know what you mean, but do you know me
Keep and ear to the beat so you can say Purp show me
Sometimes they call me Obi, cause I'm the only Wan
Throw me in the john and I'll explode like a atom bomb
That's my double meaning swag got ya thinking
If you don't understand your brain's mad like pinky
