Verse 1 {Silas Simmons} Yo, my fellow brethren let's praise the ones who risen, his name is Jesus who freed us, he is the one who's living. My sin was sliced eternal life by Christ we have been given, he gives us holy zeal to do his will for him we're driven. In heaven forever seeing his incisions, the cuts that he took for his loved ones saved us with precision. Let us not walk split with bitterness filled with rough division, Mark chapter 3 verse 25 we can't utter the mission. On the cross he cut asunder our blunders unforgiven, he uprooted my deadness sin filled heart by his excision. He was bruised for me and showed his mercy, took demolition, poured out his blood to buy my soul I'm his by definition

Verse: 2 Yo, I'm telling you we on a sacred mission, the snake is hissing but Satans already been diminished. He hates the glisten, for Christ I witness he hates this diction. John 10 verse 28 Godly protection is depicted. All those who truly believe in Christ they have been convicted, that for our sake on the tree we know Jesus was restricted. We need his grace to stand in the heat of coming affliction, but we know he'll keep all his loved ones, debt paid no eviction. Written from eternity past man my life it has been scripted, we are his children he's our heavenly pediatrician. We know that we've been called to spiritual circumcision, committed to our savior we've been raised to his commission
