

Lil Purple - Breathe Remix

{Verse 1}

I spit it fresh like a breath mint, you don't wanna mess with
The best of the best since the last dying death wish
Acrobat reckless, lyrically a head case
Clearly ya fearing me but I don't wanna hesitate
To put fear in the minds of my competitors
Overcome the obstacles go prey to the predator
Playing like Federer, on court etiquette
20 years old, Chilean boy from Connecticut

But that's that, fuck the track if it's edited Edit it, I'll sever it, medicines a definite
Grip the mic like I invented it, Thomas Edison
Staring through the game like a fluoroscope X Ray
I smell shit man your mouth is a septic tank
The south's where I rest my case, Chile to the death of me
Really tho really till my least dying breath leaves me
I'mma breathe so my teeth can feel the all ecstasy
Why you standing next to me, I'm my own man
I've got an omen be the best since the Romans
Owning all opponents clarify the moments
Feeding off their brains, getting brain's the main component
Yeah, get her wet and she flowing
Going like my flow so you know that she is flowing
Going in slowly then I throw it all in Now she bouncing for ya boy, and I'm balls in

{Verse 2}

Dunk in her like Wallace, my pen always flawless
Writing out ya will so I can put it on ya carcass
You gon start this I end this, I'm relentless

Defend immense stress and put it on a target
Never gonna stop even when I get a Bentley
A house overlooking greener fields than Wembley
Trembling, got ya high stepping to ya mommas house
Comma, bring the drama out, daddy isn't stopping now

My entourage with me, and all of us adopting ground
Takin over areas, scarier than It the clown
Like I bit the crown, I'm itching for that gold taste
Rolls Royce with the gold plate straight up out the showcase
May my dreams rest in peace like Ryan Dunn but I ain't done yet
Locked up in a dungeon no key to uncuff them
I'mma use my strength and power forward, Tim Duncan
Spur of the moment, my rhymes potent like some skunk spray
I get more ooohs and aaaaahs than a monkey
Sexy like bikini's your are just a one piece
One piece of the pie left, I'm always hungry
Get up out my way I'll knock ya down, humpy dumpty
The path's set for a miraculous track hit
This fabulous track hits like a breath of acid
Take the breath but never pass it, Tim Tebow
If this was a movie you would have me on TiVo
