

Gravebirth - Decrepit

Stare through my eyes, look straight into my mind
Enter the heart of a tormented man
This sociopath is living on the edge of a cliff
Gazing down upon his own earthward spiral

The man you see is not what once was
He is now and ever shall be
Suffering without end

Usurper of all positivity
I implore you to take control
Sink me further and further
Into the abyss

Abolish me from this misery
I have never felt so decrepit
I call upon the emperor of despair
Come drag me back to the depths from which I came

Abolish me from this misery
I have never felt so decrepit
Abolish me from this monolithic misery

Entrapment inside your own head
Is a living hell that you'll never escape
Entrapment inside your own head
Is a living hell that you'll never escape
Oh usurper, I implore you to take control
This world is a prison, and life is a malignant cancer cell
We were meant to suffer

Trapped, and left to die

I am no longer alive

He is now and ever shall be

Meant to suffer
