

Omega McBride - Nobody Else's Help

I came here to enjoy myself
And i don't need nobody else's help
I came here to enjoy myself
And i don't need nobody else's help

I'm kanye when he met jay
At mall, living in his mom's space
Still yet great
Some people in the midwest hate
When the time on the timex say
Fate's date still awaits

I building up my plate
Knocking at the gates
Lord, forgive me for my rotten traits
And honor my honoꝛ state

I told my friends, it's illegal to stuttꝛ or utter "can't"
That's why i fly above in the sky without a cape

That's i try to be the guy to keep the peace and hope alive
Living example, the light on a mantle, giving ample shine
Respect my, respect my grind

(i came here to enjoy myself)
Came here to enjoyyyyy
And i don't need nobody else's help

Hold up

Think you've got this game sewn up

So what?!

We gon get it poppin' like soda

Speak my heart over beats that start

To release that spark

Going seashell hard

Got a whole lot of thoughts

A whole lot of faults

Seasoned emcee

Just about the right amount of salt

Don't worry bout what i bought

With the change in my vault

Back in the day, i was taught things from a cult

So, get mad, that don't worry me

Spit sick, witness this swagger and certainty

Your flirting's perverted

Almost got her cursing, g
Call it curtains
She knows you're perpin'
Cut you like surgery

Freestyle from the hip, wait, stop!
Tell me how ya, tell me how ya mixtape flop!
Nope! and nope! this ain't pop
Nor is it hip hop
It's fresh water and mop

Smokin' on no bud
Rollin' on no dubs

Look at my low stub
Shout out to the underdogs
Go cubs!

Grow up
Nice chucks, got two

Eat cake batter
Gained 10 lbs
