

Ella Aiko - Clumsy

{Verse}

I could be your moon
While you're my sun
You're the light that
Shines my days now I succumb to you
Illumination got me thinking "you're the one"
Know more about you than myself
Learnings still fun some how Could never become bored of you
Second to none

{Chorus}

Oh it's your mind that pulls me in The way you are, feels like serotonin I'
m in awe that you're for me So fine and adoring
Not normally clumsy
But you got me
Tripping, tumbling, falling in love (in love)
Yeah, you got me
Tripping, tumbling, falling in love

{Verse}

Know what you want when you
Poppin' spearmint gum
Our favorite flavor
Mint got two tongues feeling numb (you sharing)
When I see you smile
My thoughts go on a run
Thinking 'bout you got my heart beating like a drum
The guitar of my emotions, you begin to strum

{Chorus}

Oh, it's your mind that pulls me in The way you are, feels like serotonin I

'm in awe that you're for me So fine and adoring

Not normally clumsy

But you got me

Tripping, tumbling, falling in love (in love)

Yeah, you got me

Tripping, tumbling, falling in love

{Bridge}

Our divine experience

Ain't no coincidences

Feeling like we're meant to be

So i'll take my chances
