

Key Notez - Truth Is

I don't wanna lie to you, why do you lie to me

Why, why, why

How can i be your king, if you don't wanna be my queen

How, how, how

Baby, i know what went wrong, went wrong you lied to me from the start

Baby, i know what went wrong you lied to me from the start

My trauma won't fade, i struggle day to day i'm hoping and i'm praying that the pain goes away

I feel like you ain't never gave a damn about me, baby

Oh, no, no

the pain goes away

I feel like you ain't never gave a damn about me, baby

Oh, no, no

You didn't have to lie, could've kept it 100

No accountability make you keep running

Stunning in the face, but your mind in the dungeon

Your ig fake, you ain't nĐµver been to london

I gotta go asap, cause i keep it trill

I know you gon' talk, but i know you're not rĐµal

And yeah, you say you love, but i know you don't feel

And now i know why you be taking all them pills

Baby, i know what went wrong you lied to me from the start

Baby, i know what went wrong you lied to me from the start

the pain goes away

I feel like you ain't never gave a damn about me, baby

Oh, no, no

My trauma won't fade, i struggle day to day i'm hoping and i'm praying that
the pain goes away

I feel like you ain't never gave a damn about me, baby

Oh, no, no
