I know u dont care about me
So why do u micro manage
If we settled down that shit would be abandoned
She said pay for tummy tucks
First i need my dick sucked
I know u been broken in

I faith walk
Im a demon in this flesh but still i day walk
When my minds frozen over
I just kill something
I take pride in all these bodies i done picked off
Pew pew pew
I used the green dot
I spit regrets while this beat knocks
I have sympathy for lives lost
Still i eat on ones that just dropped
