

Jaden - Give It To Em'

{Intro}

Aah, I said aah

Said aah

I like this, aah

Hot spitter of the century

Said you wanted hot bars

So elected me

Young black with accessories

And I'm doing well

Never seen a penitentiary

Cause they can't sentence

The greatest MC they ever seen

No I'm not, but if you gon' battle me

Then you better be

Still got a couple million

Still in elementary

Talk about to blow

Eh, let them be

Just 13, tryin' to live my life

Got in trouble for it once

But I just did it twice

Man there goes Will's kid

Walking in the Hilton

And my name's Jaden

Get it right

But homie I'm just trying to spread some light

Ah so I can go to sleep at night

Cause right now I'm really restless

Flirting with my extras

Worryin' bout who was on the guest list

Who's rockin' wit nextest
Who's verse is the bestest
Is it competition?
Cause I'm surely gon' wreck this

Ah, ain't no doubt about it
Saw I was at the top
So all them jokers reroute it
All these people are crazy
These rumors is gettin' so crowded
That's just because we are famous
And you don't know nothing bout it

Ah, nothing has a price tag
In the back of my car
Soon as I say like that
You can take the fame
Homie just give the mic back
After you spit your optional verse
Cause they might clap
Yeah girl I know you like that
Jaden I'm a young boy
Killing on the right track
Yeah got some tricks up my sleeve
They were nice raps
I just wanna be there
When you takin' off that night cap
Yeah so call me when you tryna kick it
I'll be with Mateo
Livin' how all the bosses live it
Probably at Rodeo buying same
But the cost is diferrent
Louis is the tailor

But I gotta rock the Carsons with it

{Outro}

Skater at the heart

Artist at the soul

Lusting for these women

That's the hardest to control

And if you met me once

I'm no modest, I'm just cold

I'm so hot the sun is old

I ain't honest, I'm just bold

Give it to 'em

MSFTS, tell them I'm outta here

MSFTS
