

Artemas - Don't You Start

{intro}

(don't you start, crawling back again)

(i can't let you down, how could i pretend?)

{verse}

I'm nervous that you, you looked at me

Cause i looked at you, and i can not see

Not just attraction, there's sympathy (yeah)

And if nothing matters, come home with me

{pre-chorus}

I've been dancing on my own

Can't forgive you but i know

At least i can let you go

There's a second i'm alone

{chorus}

Don't you start, crawling back again

I can't let you down, how could i pretend?

In my heart, i know it's not the end

In your heart, you know it's not the end

You know it's not the end

You know it's not the end

{verse}

I can't be mad now

Not in your sheets

Sweat serotonin, my ecstasy

I don't deserve, you don't deserve me

We deserve each other in loving memory

{pre-chorus}

I've been dancing on my own
Can't forgive you but i know
At least i can let you go
There's a second i'm alone

{chorus}

Don't you start, crawling back again
I can't let you down, how could i pretend?
In my heart, i know it's not the end
In your heart, you know it's not the end
Don't you start, crawling back again
I can't let you down, how could i pretend?
In my heart, i know it's not the end
In your heart, you know it's not the end
You know it's not the end
You know it's not the end
