YNKEUMALICE - 17

Intro verse :

Ever had the world in your palms

You just lost it said fucked

And Mess it all up trap in the damn

Mind in different realm of thoughts

Higher or lower but it's gekyume

When you go through the changes

How it's fuck your self until you wanna

Live again but your to fucked up

Who are you ?

Are you happy ?

Did you reflect ?

Did you journal ?

Verse

In my head

In my head

In my head

Can't get out my head

Thoughts in my head

Can't get out

Im drowning in the thoughts

Can't get out my mind

Can't get out my mind

I can't let go

I can't go on

I'm strong but weak

I'm weak but I found strength

In the darkest times when I was

Alone when I had no body

When love wasn't shit

I been in my mind

I been in my head

Can't get out my head

I'm trap in my mind

Can't get out my mind

Trying balance me

Trying find me

I'm lost in dark

With the moonlight

How it be me vs me

Me myself and I

Feel alone

Feeling alone

Just me in my thoughts

Too deep in my thoughts

Never to far from my mind

It's suicide on my mind can't feel Love

Love don't last

Love is pain

I feel heart aches in my chest

Let me rest

I can't seem to figure out a way out my head

Blood I shed fear the dread

I might end up dead

But I'm too fucked up

To care but

I know deep down

I want to live Life

Go father then this

This be my world

But I'm stuck in thoughts

In my head with the thoughts

Tears I shed

Feeling alone too myself

As I be myself they hate me

For me I shouldn't care

It's in my head

In my head

In my head

Where I am alone with the thoughts

In my head

In my head

Rough times I been

Tough times I been

Been through the worst

Can't tell a lie

I feel like I'm trapped

Can't find a way out

Of this cycle I'm going through

Know I'm in my head

In my head

In my head
