

YT - Things Never Align

Lyrics from snippet

{Chorus}

Look, I just wanna make you mine

So what do things never align? (Never align)

Maybe it's really a sign

I wanna blame you cause I can't blame time (Cause I can't blame time)

Everything you say runs through my mind (Through my mind)

Yeah, are you gonna move on?

Are we gonna keep trying? (Yeah)

Praying that you don't get tired

So honest round you, I don't think bout lying (Thats why I don't cap)

{Verse}

Look, I'm an open book you don't need to be prying (Yeah)

You claim you're the same but you're quiet

Sometimes tryna read through the lines in your silence

Tryna piece you together, I swear it's a science (For real)

These feelings feel stronger than iron and they're small right now but they could be giant (I think you're the one)

I'm falling for you there ain't no denying

I'm falling for you there ain't no denying

I'm falling for you but it feel like I'm flying (Feel like I'm flying)

Green dress in the gallery, looking so fine

Sarcastic on text, when I read it I'm sighing

Gonna need you now, I can't wait in a line (I ain't got no patience)

Yeah, I feel like I need you now

I'm in your net and I don't know how

And..
