

Ä...zzie DÄ,th - Empty Gods

Inside all of this emptiness i see you lied to me
A dead rose in a grave it grow n it's not hard to see
That i'm on my own again it's now written in stone
Inside of your mind what do i see? an empty corpse
Trust in empty "gods" ?
I just can't let go
Lost in empty hallways fade into the night
You're my kryptonite
My soul's crystalised
Smother me, please slaughter me and spill blood on the floor
Lie to me, and say to me that you don't want to Blow my brains out, i don't wanna stop
Bite my body like a zombie
I just want to find out where i died
Rip my skin off and dissolve me
