YUNGBLUD - Tears In The Rain

{verse 1}

I don't wanna close my eyes

'cause then i have to face my mind

Think about the way i'm always

Wrong and you were right

So i'm just gonna run and hide

Instead of putting up a fight

'cause if i forget forever then i'll never waste my time

{pre-chorus}

And i don't think i understand everything i'm going through

I don't think i understand; i don't think i want to

Only thing i understand is that i'm not alright

{chorus}

I had a pain like tears in the rain

I don't know what i need

I don't know what i need

Like {?} go and waste

All my secrets are safe

You're a mirror of me

I hate what i see

And once again i'm all alone

{verse 2}

I don't wanna open up

'cause i don't know what you'll find

I guÐµss love is just a luxury

Of a sound and spotless mind

I can tell you'vÐµ had enough

You were never satisfied

So i'll leave before i'm {left?}

So that i'm never left behind

{pre-chorus}

'cause i don't think i understand everything i'm going through

I don't think i understand; i don't think i want to

Only thing i understand is that i'm not alright

{chorus}

I had a pain like tears in the rain

I don't know what i need

I don't know what i need

Like {there?} go and waste

All my secrets are safe

You're a mirror of me

I hate what i see

And once again

{middle-8}

I will take more than i'm given

I'll always be a bad decision

I'd rather wave and say grace

If you don't ever see me cry

No you won't ever see me cry

{chorus}

'cause i had a pain like tears in the rain

I don't know what i need

I don't know what i need

Like {there?} go and waste

All my secrets are safe

You're a mirror of me

I hate what i see

And once again i'm all alone
