{Intro}

Oh, woah

Oh, woah

I can't keep crying, dying

{Verse 1}

Picture in a hotel room

Haven't felt warm weather since I left last June, like

Why it always gotta be about you?

Get a lil' henny in me, I'ma speak my truth, like

I know it's gotten bad for us

From all the questions they askin'...

{Chorus}

I can't keep crying over (Crying over)

Dying over (Dying over)

Something that just don't seem right

I can't keep fighting over (Fighting over)

Hiding over (Hiding over)

I wish you would pick my side

I can't keep crying over (Crying over)

Dying over (Dying over)

Something that just don't seem right

I can't keep fighting over (Fighting over)

Hiding over (Hiding over)

I wish you would pick my side
