

DaVan Official - Is This What Love Is?

Is this what love is

Taking everything for granted

Got no more second chances to give

(It looks like you lost another one)

Is this what love is

Taking everything for granted

Got no more second chances to give

Is this what love is

I've been searching high and low (high and low)

Trying to understand this feeling that grows (let it grow)

In my heart's a fire burning so bright

But I wonder is this what love feels like

Is this what love is

A beautiful mess, a mix of joy and pain

A content test, it's unpredictable

Is this what love is

It's hard to define

It's hard to unwind

It's hard to define

The pain in my heart

But I'll keep moving on

Cause you're mine

Is this what love is

Is this what love is

I've been searching high and low (high and low)

Trying to understand this feeling that grows (let it grow)

In my heart's a fire burning so bright

But I wonder is this what love feels like

Is this what love is (this what love is)
A beautiful mess, a mix of joy and pain
A content test, it's unpredictable
Is this what love is (this what love is)
It's hard to define
It's hard to unwind

I tried to go back
But it's hard to rewind
Feel like I wasted so much time
I thought it would be fine
But my life got intertwined
I don't know if I can keep this up
I've been moving down the line
I'm looking but I just can't find
When will I know what's right

This what love is
Is this what I really want
Or is it something more
I'm dropping to the floor
I know that you're looking for a type of love
But I can't promise you that will be enough
I always seem to mess it up
And even when I'm looking out I break your trust
I never know if anybody really likes me
Nobody even has the time to hug me
I've been going through the pain and suffering
I hope one day you'll listen when I say I'm sorry
If this is what love is
Then I don't wanna worry
About it
