

DaVan Official - Can't Fix You 2

You can call me harley

I don't need you, no, no, no

I don't want you, no, no, no

That's facts

All the love and the drugs can't fix you

I popped a 10 then a 30 to forget you

You've been all on my mind since i left you

Now i'm left in the dust so it's fuck you

All the love and the drugs can't fix you

I popped a 10 then a 30 to forget you

You've been all on my mind since i left you

Now i'm left in the dust so it's fuck you

Swollen my eyelids, i've been crying again

Taking medicine so the pain will end

Do you see the trend? i just want to forget

But i got pain in my chest like cardiac arrest

God damn got me feeling stressed

Depression isn't the best

But i gotta put it all in the past

Uh-huh, uh-huh, uh-huh, uh-huh

Put it in the past, put it in the past

All the love and the drugs can't fix you

I popped a 10 then a 30 to forget you

You've been all on my mind since i left you

Now i'm left in the dust so it's fuck you

All the love and the drugs can't fix you

I popped a 10 then a 30 to forget you

You've been all on my mind since i left you
Now i'm left in the dust so it's fuck you
I'm in a whole different lane
Drinking my cup, kurt cobain
I don't like to politic like prince, i'm sipping purple rain
I got two glocks on my side, just so i don't gotta aim
What's lacking? my money, right? isn't that what kanye said
This ain't nothing new, i just pull up bentley coupe (coupe)
I got stars all in my roof, doin shit you wish you do (you do)
I'm just trying to make a move i'm just trying to forget about you, forget about you (yeah)
All the love and the drugs can't fix you i pop a 10, then a 30 to forget you
You've been all of my mind, so it's fuck you
I don't know what to do since you left me
I can't sip out the cup, cause it's empty
Kinda like the way that you left me
No, you don't wanna see me, i'm guessing
Well, i don't wanna see you, cause that's just depressing

All the love and the drugs can't fix you
I pop a 10, then a 30 to forget you
You've been all on my mind since i left you
Now i'm left in the dust, so it's fuck you
All the love and the drugs can't fix you
I pop a 10, then a 30 to forget you
You've been all on my mind since i left you
Now i'm left in the dust, so it's fuck you
