{intro}

(aah, ooh)

(ooh, ooh)

{verse 1}

If i had a dollar for every time you lied, i'd be a millionaire

Girl, what's the point of pretending that i was never there?

Yeah, i try to escape the party, but all your friends are there

You say you like gettin' toxic, you think i'm not aware?

{chorus}

Hey there, nice to meet ya, i've been hesitant to greet ya

It's been so hard to believe you, you don't treat me like an equal

I don't ever wanna see you, it's just somethin' i agree to

I know that it's hard to be me, but i think that i would hate to be you

{bridge}

Oh, i'm the one that take shit too far?

But i don't really have to try too hard to change the way you think

I don't gotta say those hurtful things that you say to me

{verse 2}

Ayy, but, fuck you, i heard you been run through

Said i never loved you, but you the one i run to

Oh, i'm supposed to trust you when you make it a plus two?

Yeah, i hope when i'm finally happy that it's gon' crush you

{interlude}

You got it all figured out, shut your mouth

Wet 'em up and put 'em down

Shut you up, won't make a sound

I hope everyone gon' let you down

You got it all figured out, shut your mouth
Wet 'em up and put 'em down
Shut you up, won't make a sound
I hope everyone gon' let you down

{bridge}

(i hope they let you down)

(i hope they let you down)

(ohh, ohh, ooh)

(you were a piece of me)

(you were a piece of me)

{chorus}

Hey there, nice to meet ya, i've been hesitant to greet ya

It's been so hard to believe you, you don't treat me like an equal

I don't ever wanna see you, it's just somethin' i agree to

I know that it's hard to be me, but i think that i would hate to be you
