

SharkPup - Shark in the sea

Hiiiiiiiiii

Hiiiiiiiiii

People call me things

But I'm nothing but a shark in the sea

I'm as confused as a human can be

It makes me feel worse

When I know I'm not a shark in the sea

Wake up from a bad dream

Car alarm

I'm so fucking dense nothing surpasses me

I'm in a spiral of thoughts

Wish I could pipe down everything

So the choice is that I let it happen

Or make the mess of holding regrets in my hands

I'm nothing but a shark in a sea of other sharks

Worse feeling that a shark can feel
