

K-9 Wolf - lamchumii's Resemblance

{intro: jordan peterson}

The is a lot of you that's stuck in the past
And what that means is you didn't map the territory well enough
And the parts of your brain that are alarm systems
The anxiety systems are saying
"no, no the is holes at the way you looking at the world
The is holes at the way you looking at the world"
And you fell in them once and you don't know where they are
And you don't know how to fill them
You don't know how to walk around them
And so, you can't forgive them
You can't forgive them, you can't forgive them
You can't forgive them
You stuck back there
Your body is still reacting as if thĐµ is a emergency
That could happĐµn again

{hook: k-9 wolf}

It's tricky to be who i is
(that you haven't fixed)
They know my flaws and weaknesses
Selling my peace for witnesses
Witnesses all greatness
And see me as i see myself
Validation ain't at home, i get it from the strangest peers
These are not my finest tears
I regretted all them years i thought in time he will change
Mama he will never change
I could never ran away from it
Too young to carry all this blame
I'm spiteful in my heart

You can't walk on me like om did

I was so hard on myself, i've should've been my closest friend

{verse 1: k-9 wolf}

I'm my biggest weakness

I keep telling 'em am great

The best to ever live

I can afford to show 'em fear

I'm afraid that i became the people that i used to hate

I'm questioning myself like can i really be a duplicate?

Supervillains look to cool

Know a couple souls that know my soul, i feel uncomfortable

Push them everytime they get to close, don't wan' be venerable

I learned from parents ain't nobody be dependable

{verse 2: m4d x}

I shoulda' been my only friend

I know a couple of souls who know my

Soul, i feel exposed

And i'll never know if they never really just
Wanted to see me grow
The more that i grow is crazy
How i'm attracting brand new foe
I'll never get to show all of the doubters
How much i can do 'em so cold
Honestly, i gotta grow
Be more mature and put all my niggas on
Go
Gotta stay practicing
Cannot be born and start to be menacing
I'm gonna be extravagant, ain't talkin' 'bout
That new song with nasty c

{outro: jordan peterson}

It doesn't matter if it's your fault
That irrelevant
It's the alarm system doesn't care

If they are tagging old memories with anxiety then you have to do something about it

Or you will be tortured by those memories forever

Point is you don't want to be put in the same vulnerable position again

And lots of people have parts of them that are still stuck in some traumatic childhood experience

Traumatic childhood experience
