

Jaden - Know Why

{intro}

What you doing here?

Girl, who let you here?

Can i whisper in your ear?

'cause i really kinda need you near

And my mom said you couldn't come over

Didn't really care when you pulled up in the rover

Said that i should wait, wait till i got older

But love is a war and maybe i'm your soldier (swag)

{verse 1}

At the crib like you're here to see willow

Everybody know that you're here to see smith-o

Willow's been in philly for the last couple weeks

She's just chilling there with gammy

Cause she really loves the east

But i'm in cali where the sun come

The city of angels and trust me baby, you're one of them

Upcoming artist? i'm sorry, i don't know none of em

Msfts tee, i'm sorry hun if you wanted one

I'm just playin, you can have it

Most exclusive jacket that we've got

Don't worry girl, you can swag it

I be looking dumb? sorry girl, that's a habit

Your body was just around, you make me wanna come grab it

People say my lyrics are explicit

But really they're just vivid

Cause when i hang with you i'm always thinkin bout kissing

And my house is like a heaven, i'd love for you to come visit

And listen.. to the smooth track

Aye girl, get your dude back

Man, why'd you go and do that?

Get up in my face and you ruined the mood up

Jeez, told the girl, "ædon't worry"

I can get him gone, i just got to tell siri

Security came running through the hall in a hurry

And took 'em so fast, it was almost kinda blurry, see?

{hook}

Uh girl, why you lookin' so fly? (so fly)

You the baddest, no lie (lie)

You wanna get in my room

I knew you was gonna try

But before you was actin' all shy

And i think i know why

(why? why? why?)

Girl, i think i know why

(why? why? why?)

Girl, i think i know why

{verse 2}

I got what you need, come take it if you want

Girl, come make it if you want

I don't care what you wear, come if you want

Even though i couldn't say it it's basically what i want

So.. i'm just bugging girl

But the funny part is you know that i wasn't, girl

I'm just really lonely, i need someone's loving girl

And you make me so hot

And that's why it feels like an oven girl

And i think i know why

{hook}

Uh girl, why you lookin' so fly? (so fly)

You the baddest, no lie (lie)

You wanna get in my room
I knew you was gonna try
But before you was actin' all shy
And i think i know why
(why? why? why?)
Girl, i think i know why
(why? why? why?)
Girl, i think i know why
{interlude}
Aye girl, if you up your room right now
Listen to this songâ€”i'm right there with you
Just let me hold you, take my hand
Just rock with me, girl, just rock withâ€”

{hook}
Uh girl, why you lookin so fly? (so fly)
You the baddest, no lie (lie)
You wanna get in my room
I knew you was gonna try
But before you was actin' all shy
And i think i know why
(why? why? why?)
Girl, i think i know why
(why? why? why?)
Girl, i think i know why

{verse 3}
Put your head up on my shoulder
"girl i'm bout to kiss you"â€”yeah, that's what i told her
So we getting close, only getting closer
And i'm waiting for the kiss till i said â€œhold upâ€•
I'm o.k. that you are older
I just need you on my side when i roll up in that bentley

And these jokers just resent me

When you met me i was empty

And i'm bout to win a grammy and these jokers wanna friend me but i'm gone now
