

Jaden - Jus' Not Ready

{verse 1}

You remember last november

Or was it october, you was over

Oh this getting colder

It's the middle of december, embers burning, wheels were turning

And i was yearning for you

Girl, i'm usually a player but tonight i'm turning for you

Girl i couldn't even speak that night

You remember i had to beach that night

There was no one on the street that night

Rolled up, i was looking like a creep that night

Then you came inside my tent, to come and get me

And you whispered in you asked if i was ready

And i wasn't, but girl

{hook}

All i wanna do, is take my time with you

So if this love is true

Then you wait for the two of us

All i wanna do is take my time with you

So can we keep it cool?

Cause baby this is new

{bridge}

Wanna be my girlfriend, and my lover but i'm just not ready

Wanna be my girlfriend, and my lover but i'm just not ready

Wanna be my girlfriend, and my lover but i'm just not ready

Oh no i'm just not ready, oh no i'm just not ready

{verse 2}

Girl you 'bout to get me in some drama

Feeling like a storm coming

And i know you're dealing with these problems
And i know there's more coming
And you doing how you can
Hope you know i really understand
I just gotta be the realest while i can Cause it's a little joke as chance
Things spread like cancer
On the canvas, baby girl let's ride
Take her to the spot on the top and we never gonna stop
Show me what you got, never gonna dry
No, girl we never gonna' stop
Cause i want to make it lastlast
Don't worry bout them jokers in the class
Cause he's always talking trash
I'mma put him in the past
I'm in the beamer and i kinda got it going really fast
{hook}

{verse 3}

I'm cool as the wind blows
Please open up a window
Cause it's hot in here
And it's cold when you're not in here
Your body rocking, got a headache
I'ma lay you down cuz my body getting heavy
Girl you should drop it like it's hot cause i'm ready
And i'mma lean it, but only if you let me
Come into my villa like get it
You can be my cougar like freddy
Krugger, you ready?
Something you can show me

You can be my friend

You can be my homie

You can come and hold me, cause i'm really lonely

And we could do it fast or we could do it slowly (holy crap)

You don't even know me, on twitter call me a phony

When it's time you gone faster than ?
