

Adam Ford - Riverbottom Boyz

{Verse 1}

Pants on, throw a fit for this dance song
Good core, that'll help keep my stance strong
I made large amounts then had put my mans on Still want everything, my list of demands long
And it's only growing, like really why stop?
Shoe store tall shelf, reaching for that high top
Saw a glimmer of the glory, made my eyes pop
Pressure flatten you into what they serve at iHOP
Just so you know, I'm only being kind to you
But where's the bros, who really said they'd ride for you?
I'm looking close, and don't see them beside of you
On the low, I think they might of lied to you

{Chorus}

Place to place, never stuck like glue
Powerade drink in the cup, it's blue
Blend of the skill and luck it's true
Riverbottom boys, like Chuck and crew
Place to place, never stuck like glue
Powerade drink in the cup, it's blue
Blend of the skill and luck it's true
Riverbottom boys, like Chuck and crew
Place to place, never stuck like glue
Powerade drink in the cup, it's blue
Blend of the skill and luck it's true
Riverbottom boys, like Chuck and crew

{Verse 2}

Poppin pink lemonade, no this isn't drank
Rising with revengeance as I'm moving up ranks
Aiming and missing? Might as well be shooting blanks

Bro said I'm sick, and after coughing I said "œthanks"œ
Drinking Hi-C, now I'm off a sugar rush
If you rapping in my face, I might turn to Hush
And the pain will cost more than a rare FNAF plush
Used to clean the bathrooms and no one ever flushed
Standing on my business "œtil it told me "œget off"œ
Flow like lettuce, but I ain't playing lacrosse
Don't get caught in the sting, like an aggravated wasp
So I do my own thing, and it's never at a loss

{Chorus}

Place to place, never stuck like glue
Powerade drink in the cup, it's blue
Blend of the skill and luck it's true
Riverbottom boys, like Chuck and crew
Place to place, never stuck like glue
Powerade drink in the cup, it's blue
Blend of the skill and luck it's true
Riverbottom boys, like Chuck and crew
Place to place, never stuck like glue
Powerade drink in the cup, it's blue
Blend of the skill and luck it's true
Riverbottom boys, like Chuck and crew
