

Gothic Psychology - Alazia

(Intro, Spoken)

Seriously?

All this and you still haven't changed

I, I thought you were better than this

No, I don't even want to hear it

Goodbye

(Verse 1:)

Tonight I'm tangled in my thoughts

Clouds and storms racing through

No matter what it's all pointless

It's not like there's anything left

(Prechorus:)

But I never got the chance to find out who I am

I never got the chance to find out who we were

But I never got the chance to find out who I am

I never got the chance to find out who we were

(Chorus:)

I can't change me anymore

I tried hard and died hard

If you run away out of here

I'll be walking right behind you

I can't change me anymore

I tried hard and died hard

If you run away out of here

I'll be walking right behind you

(Verse 2:)

I cannot be alone anymore

But then again it's hopeless
If I try to make a change
Nothing ever comes out of it

(Prechorus:)

But I never got the chance to find out who I am
I never got the chance to find out who we were
But I never got the chance to find out who I am
I never got the chance to find out who we were

(Chorus:)

I can't change me anymore
I tried hard and died hard
If you run away out of here
I'll be walking right behind you

I can't change me anymore
I tried hard and died hard
If you run away out of here
I'll be walking right behind you
(guitar solo)

(instrumental bridge)

(Chorus:)

I can't change me anymore
I tried hard and died hard
If you run away out of here
I'll be walking right behind you

I can't change me anymore
I tried hard and died hard
If you run away out of here

I'll be walking right behind you
