I'm the secret object of your desire

'Til your the next victim of my afterfire

The taste of my lips will make your heart beat faster
'Til my beat is in your brain forever

Like the moon and the stars and the galaxy
I'm a heavenly body like you've never seen

So hit the dance floor if you feel alright
Just move to thĐµ groove 'til the fuel ignitĐµs

Rap Breakdown:

Hot damn! It's Alli Cazaam
With ya boy D. Blu and the Ice Cool Crew

Straight from the Bronx and right back to you

This Brooklyn girl knows just what to do
'Cause she can...

Serve it up, back it up, break it up, shake it up, flip it up, pick it up, and when you throw it down she can take it round and round

She can drop a beat for the people on the street

Makin' people get on down from all around

She can sip champagne from a diamond cup
And party like a maniac on million dollar yachts

So let's blow this one horse popsicle stand
And hit the hottest night clubs in the land

They call me the Afterfire
I'm the secret object of your desire

I'll rev your engine higher and higher
'Til your the next victim of my afterfire

The taste of my lips will make your heart beat faster
'Til my beat is in your brain forever

Like the moon and the stars and the galaxy
I'm a heavenly body like you've never seen
So hit the dance floor if you feel alright
Just move to the groove 'til the fuel ignites
