Anna Thompson - House

{Chorus}

You left your shit in my house

Now you're passed out on my couch

Wondering what are we now?

We fallen in love or out?

You got to close to me babe

Wondering what are we now?

We fallen in love or out?

{Verse 1}

Flowers in my hair

And I'm seeing every star in the sky

(Seeing every, seeing every, seeing every star)

Part of him got carved in

The initials in the park

After we fucked in broad daylight

Boy you got me fucked up

Got me writing all these stupid fucking love songs

On my mind, when I should get my work done

Got my thinkin' 'bout your eyes rolling back when your topped off

Fuck

I think I'm gonna throw up

I think I'm gonna throw up

{Chorus}

You left your shit in my house

Now you're passed out on my couch

Wondering what are we now?

We fallen in love or out?

You got to close to me babe

Wondering what are we now?

We fallen in love or out?

{Verse 2}

To go against the white in your {?}

(To go against the, go against, go against the)

What I kinda like (what I kinda like)

When you kissing on and go ahead and bite it

Oh shit

I think I'm really losing it

I think I'm really losing it

{Chorus}

You left your shit in my house

Now you're passed out on my couch

Wondering what are we now?

We fallen in love or out?

You got to close to me babe

Wondering what are we now?

We fallen in love or out?

{Outro}

So different when you're around

We falling in love or out?

On my mind

Always on, always on my
