

Gothic Psychology - July

(1st verse)

The summer rain
Falls down my skin
It hits me like a billowing, blowing wind
You grab my face
You pull me in
You greet me with your stupid grin
Cause

(Chorus)

In July I fell in love with your hazel eyes
They were glowing in the midnight sky
I can't get enough it's your love
It gets me so high like the clouds in July

(2nd Verse)

Oh, the heat
As your skin touches mine
Falling into each other
Underneath this skyline
I can't help
Having this certain feeling
It's messing with my mind
Just like that time

(Chorus)

In July I fell in love with your hazel eyes
They were glowing in the midnight sky
I can't get enough it's your love
It gets me so high like the clouds in July

(Bridge)

You know just how to pull me in
It's not a secret if you'd win
Win me over, it's what you do
It's how you made me fall in love with you

The trees are swaying I hear your laugh
It fills me with memories from the past
Remember back

(Chorus)

In July I fell in love with your Hazel eyes
They were glowing in the midnight sky
I can't get enough it's your love
It gets me so high like the clouds in July

In July I fell in love with your hazel eyes
They were glowing in the midnight sky
I can't get enough it's your love
It gets me so high like the clouds in July
