Gothic Psychology - Pity Party

(verse 1)

I don't go there anymore

The feelings just pour out of me

We don't talk much at all

What happened to what we had?

Can't remember who i am at this point

Stop talking just grab a joint

We don't walk with a purpose

We're just here to serve

(pre-chorus)

I'm lost in this city of illusions

My heart's heavy with confusion

Laughter's gone, music's just a fading sound

In a room full of people, but i can't be found

(chorus)

Hey where's the party man i lost my invitation

In this sea of faces i'm lost in isolation

Evil schemes and silent screams i seek salvation

All i find are echoÐµs in this empty conversation

(versÐµ 2)

The darkness surrounds me

It comes and takes hold

My lungs can't handle the weight

They collapse and blacken

This noise can't let me be

Within time i'll need to fold

It's my inevitable fate

They corrupt and wither away

(pre-chorus)

I'm lost in this city of illusions

My heart's heavy with confusion

Laughter's gone, music's just a fading sound

In a room full of people, but i can't be found

(chorus)

Hey where's the party man i lost my invitation

In this sea of faces i'm lost in isolation

Evil schemes and silent screams i seek salvation

All i find are echoes in this empty conversation

(bridge)

Help me get away from myself

Help me get outside of myself

Help me get away from myself

Emptied out i died a long time ago

(pre-chorus)

I'm lost in this city of illusions

My heart's heavy with confusion

Laughter's gone, music's just a fading sound

In a room full of people, but i can't be found

(chorus)

Hey where's the party man i lost my invitation

In this sea of faces i'm lost in isolation

Evil schemes and silent screams i seek salvation

All i find are echoes in this empty conversation

Hey where's the party man i lost my invitation

In this sea of faces i'm lost in isolation

Evil schemes and silent screams i seek salvation

All i find are echoes in this empty conversation
