

Rustage - Watch 'Em All Burn

{Verse 1: Rustage}

I've been doing it from BC
Genesis, got a long list on my CV
Feminist, when I teabag, get it PG
Boutta go down, spit ahead like a CD's
There's a plague in the streets, and they need me
Terminate, and I spray like graphite
Cut a wave like a fox on the TV
When a sex bangs, then I'm out like it's Chi Chi
Fucking with the son of God, I ain't Jesus
Got it to the core, rotting like sake Eden's
Blow them in the door, they're nothing but gatekeepers
Bitch, I've been heaven since stocking my saint PR
Lotta coming out from the rose like hey fever
Blinded by my talent, they're looking for fate fears
Basis of my posse, I roam with the same features
Leave a Star Morning as sick as the daydreamers, ha

{Chorus: Jonathan Young}

I've been here since the beginning, all this fucking verse
See the panic in the scene, and I'll go make 'em hurt
There ain't no better in Hell and no Heaven, the one
That's gonna watch 'em all burn

{Refrain: Jonathan Young}

I'm gonna watch 'em all burn

{Verse 2: Rustage}

Not a big league battle
They be looking up like the Sistine Chapel
Caught 'em by the throat - way I bit these apples
I can say what I want, they can't get me canceled

You ain't ever speaking my language, it's so babble
Look at how I'm leading a damage they can't handle
Switching to a different dynamic, they both channels
'Cause whether you're talking tough, then it blocking down the barrel like Everybody acting so cocky until I dropped in Barrage is the pronoun you're given because you're not him
Throwing back your demons, endeavours will make you soft skin
Turning them a boilers - way that they up in coffins
Gotta fucking murder your family and your offspring
I ain't letting anyone blow up like it's a cough ring

Say what I want, and I'm making it happen
Don't wanna front, but my famous apparent

I'm every bit, every piece of the atom
I'm everything that will breathing this planet
