

Skiddelz - In The Streets

(Verse 1)

Yo, step up on the pavement, feeling the beat
Concrete beneath my feet, rhythm in the street
Every step I take, I'm painting my own path
In this urban landscape, where dreams outlast

The city's heartbeat, it pulses so strong
As I walk these streets, I know I belong
Neon lights flicker, like stars in the night
In this concrete jungle, where dreams take flight

(Verse 2)

Strollin' through the alleys, where stories unfold
Every corner I turn, a new tale to be told
From the hustle and bustle, to the quiet retreats
Every step I take, my soul finds its beats

Pedestrians passing, in a rhythmical dance
Each with their own story, their own circumstance
But united we are, in this urban symphony
Walking in the street, feeling so free

(Verse 3)

In the streets, I find solace, in the chaos and noise
Amidst the city's clamor, I find my poise
With every stride, I leave behind my cares
As I navigate the avenues, the city bares
The concrete canvas, a tapestry of tales
Each step I take, another story unveils
From the corner to the skyscraping heights
In the rhythm of the streets, my spirit ignites
