

Gotham City Syndicatez - It's All So Queer

{Verse 1}

That boy, batboy

Always dressed in tights

Fighting crime by day

Molesting boys by night

They should lock you up for that shhh

Rip of your legs, make you a banana split

Batman look you have no grit

You only have aids and a lame outfit

You remind me of an orthodox rabbi

Because you do weird things to kids and make them cry

{Chorus}

Batman, the hero of the night

But when he's not fighting crime, he's out of sight

His true desires lie in a different kind of prey

Innocent kids, he lures them away

So lock your doors tight, and keep your children near

Because Batman's not a hero, he's the one to fear

{Verse 2}

Oh Batman you degenerate ball of lust

We shall reduce you to mere dust

You take those kids who just turned ten

Then shuffle them to your little den

However we found your Epstein island cave

As well as all the boys you tied up as slaves

This is a sick trafficking ring

Stick around and listen to us sing

{Chorus}

Batman, the hero of the night

But when he's not fighting crime, he's out of sight
His true desires lie in a different kind of prey
Innocent kids, he lures them away
So lock your doors tight, and keep your children near
Because Batman's not a hero, he's the one to fear

{Bridge}

The Dark Knight, you're a depraved sight
Even looking at you can give someone aids
Stop the charades, we know you go to pride parades
And gay pirate crusades with men darker than the ace of spades

{Chorus}

Batman, the hero of the night
But when he's not fighting crime, he's out of sight
His true desires lie in a different kind of prey
Innocent kids, he lures them away
So lock your doors tight, and keep your children near
Because Batman's not a hero, he's the one to fear

{Chorus}

Batman, the hero of the night
But when he's not fighting crime, he's out of sight
His true desires lie in a different kind of prey
Innocent kids, he lures them away
So lock your doors tight, and keep your children near
Because Batman's not a hero, he's the one to fear

{Outro}

Batman, the hero of the night
But when he's not fighting crime, he's out of sight
His true desires lie in a different kind of-
Innocent kids, he lures them away

So -

Your doors tight, and keep your children near

Because Batman's not a hero, he's the one to fear
