Alec Normal - Love, Overtime

{verse 1}
Within yourself, a dirty lie
I can't believe i went outside
I'm working overtime so i can win your heart
Gone away you will come back
You give me a love heart attack
I'm working overtime so i can win your heart

{chorus}
Why can't i come up
With a place to put this stuff?
I've tried for hours and hours, but nothing's hearing me
(why'd you go?)
But i think that it just worked
To that i say "what a goddamned jerk!"
I've made a mockery of my conspiracy

{verse 2}
Flip flop and a jump
I'll always be summed up
By the piece of trash i hold nobody can recognize
A twinkle in my eye
As i close my door and cry
(wait, what?)
When my feelings are worthless
(wait, wait what?)
Picture of you on my desk
Environment of love grotesque
I'm working overtime so i can win your heart
{chorus}
Pick my pocket, count my hands

The right bandage does reprimands
I'm working overtime so i can win your heart
Counting all our time
Help me draw this line
I'm working overtime so i can win your heart
I get a stroke from love first-aid
But yours just seems like a charade
I'm working overtime so i can win your heart
(excuse me, excuse me!)

{bridge}
Out-of-pocket love
Won't you bring it up?
The bleakness of the future in my hands persuading me
(why'd you go?)
Idiopathic cause
I wish what wasn't was
So that mine and hers could be in synchrony
Pondered disregard
It doesn't seem too hard
If it's so fake then why is this nightmare really affecting me
(pain internally?)
Dial 9-1-1
My heart's not having fun!
But it looks like you are (you are)
{outro}
Oh the ozark over the hill
Take my coffee don't let it spill
Love betrayal is on the rise
Let me take a-
