

Anna Thompson - Party

{intro}

I want you to show up at my party (party)

I want you to tell me that you're sorry

For everything that you did (did)

For making me this stupid

{verse 1}

Tough luck i guess

Looked hard but couldn't find your interest

Your guess is good as mine

Got intimate with corners of my mind

You made a mess so

I got no idea why

{chorus}

I want you to show up at my party

I want you to tell me that you're sorry

For everything that you did (for everything)

For making me this stupid (for making me this stupid)

I want you to show up at my party

I want to be up against your body

Dancing under kitchen lights (dancing under kitchen lights)

Like it's any other night

{post-chorus}

(i want your, i want your body, your body)

(i want your, i want your body, your body)

(i want your, i want your body, your body)

(i want your, i want your body)

{verse 2}

I'd phone a friend

But they ran out of advice
I'd play pretend
Like you'd care if i lived or diĐµd
I'm in duress (i'm in duress)
Act like i didn't mind (don't mind)
You ruinĐµd my progress
So somebody tell me why

{chorus}

I want you to show up at my party
I want you to tell me that you're sorry
For everything that you did (for everything that you did)
For making me this stupid (for making me this stupid)
I want you to show up at my party
I want to be up against your body
Dancing under kitchen lights (dancing under kitchen lights)
Like it's any other night

{bridge}

Will you hear me through the noise?
When the venue's really crowded?
And i'll see you with your boys
You might notice but i doubt it
'cause it kinda reached a point
Where you never thought about it
You'll be free inside your void
But i'll still be surrounded

{chorus}

I want you to show up at my
I want you to tell me that you're sorry

{post-chorus}

(i want your, i want your body, your body)

(i want your, i want your body, your body)

(i want your, i want your body, your body)

Oh i want you to show up at my

(i want your, i want your body)

(i want your, i want your body, your body)

(i want your, i want your body, your body)

(i want your, i want your body, your body)

(i want your, i want your body)
