

Gotham City Syndicatez - The Show is On

{Verse}

Diabolic, tectonic limbs out-reach
Lengthening out from the wretched leech
His eyes ooze blood, tearing deep
Sending him to the eternal sleep

{Pre-Chorus}

Never thought I'd be in the foxhole with you
The Batman is looking kind of blue
What's the matter, aren't you refreshed?
As I tear apart your horrid flesh

{Chorus}

The show is on, and you're our latest pawn
The fighting, and writing, and biting 'till dawn
But, the actors showed themselves right here
Batman, welcome, my sweet little dear
I know this perturbs your peace of mind
I know that these chemicals will make you blind
But actors, detractors, and factors too
Reveal that you are a little bit screwed

{Verse}

I know this pains kind of deep
Sending you to the eternal sleep
But trust me, the torture is deserved
You've done a lot of sick things you nerd

{Pre-Chorus}

Never thought I'd be in the foxhole with you
The Batman is looking kind of blue
What's the matter, aren't you refreshed?

As I tear apart your horrid flesh

{Chorus}

The show is on, and you're our latest pawn
The fighting, and writing, and biting 'till dawn
But, the actors showed themselves right here
Batman, welcome, my sweet little dear
I know this perturbs your peace of mind
I know that these chemicals will make you blind
But actors, detractors, and factors too
Reveal that you are a little bit screwed
