

Scavenger - That's It?

{Intro}

Ooh

Ooh

{Verse}

Talking to the walls

I know they can listen through it all

My mind is a prison with no phone call

I'm in no condition to just play along

I know I'm out of place in here

I wanna go far away from here

I gotta be strong, can't shed no tears

I'm walking this path alone

Death is on the horizon

I don't mind

I won't be crying when the reaper sell what I'm buying

I'm lying, I really don't want to go

{Outro}

On my deathbed, I ask if that's it

The world will continue to spin

I'll fade away in the abyss

All I ever wanted was this
