

Gotham City Syndicatez - The Media

{Verse}

Look at me, look at me, look at little old me
Do you think Batman is ever gonna see
Decaying old lights and treacherous sights
Running in the night looking for someone to fight

{Chorus}

Pride breeds pestilence
Bride needs excellence
Pestilence and excellence, living in malevolence

Eyes see testaments
Cries free sentiments
Testaments and sentiments, living in malevolence

{Verse}

Wake the fuck up, open up your eyes
Try to see through all of Batman's lies
Do you like what you don't really hear?
Did they cut off your little old deaf ear?
Ignorance is a choice, better use your fucking voice
Cause if we don't rejoice, Batman's gonna make noise

{Chorus}

Pride breeds pestilence
Bride needs excellence
Pestilence and excellence, living in malevolence
Eyes see testaments
Cries free sentiments
Testaments and sentiments, living in malevolence
Living in malevolence, living in malevolence

{Verse}

Batman owns the media

Batman owns the media

Batman owns the media

Batman owns the media

Batman owns the media

Batman owns the media

Batman owns the media

Fuck!

Living in malevolence

Living in malevolence

{Bridge}

90 percent of the media is controlled by six corporations

All benefactors and owned by Bruce Wayne

(Don't you think that's kinda insane?)

All of our media is private, for-profit

And can be bought and sold for agendas at a whim

(Doesn't that thought make you a little grim?)

{Chorus}

Pride breeds pestilence

Bride needs excellence

Pestilence and excellence, living in malevolence

Eyes see testaments

Cries free sentiments

Testaments and sentiments, living in malevolence

Pride breeds pestilence

Bride needs excellence

Pestilence and excellence, living in malevolence

Eyes see testaments

Cries free sentiments

Testaments and sentiments, living in malevolence

{Outro}

Batman owns the media

Batman owns the media

Batman owns the media

Living in malevolence

Batman owns the media

Batman owns the media

Batman owns the media

Living in malevolence

Living in malevolence
