

TH3 AY3S - 4THE1

(The ayes you are going to BEO-)
In the darkness of the night
Whispers of a shattered sight
A broken dream that once gleamed bright
Now lost in shadows, out of sight

Fragments of hope lay scattered
In a heart that's bruised and tattered
Dreams once held now shattered
Leaving behind echoes unheard and scattered

Silent tears fall like rain
Washing away the lingering pain
A broken dream, a haunting stain
In the depths where memories wane
