

TH3 AY3S - TellingNon

Once upon a time in a land so far away
Magic filled the air, where dreams would sway
Heroes rose and villains fell
In this timeless tale we tell

Once upon a time, under starry skies above
Love's sweet melody played on hearts in love
Whispers of forever in each gentle rhyme
In this enchanted moment of once upon a time

Once upon a time, as the story goes
Hope shone bright as the sun rose
Through trials and triumphs, we find our way
In this never-ending dance of night and day
