

TH3 AY3S - SayerSimulator

{Verse 1: TH3 AY3S}

Dirt roads, red Ford, preacher's daughter in sight
Farmers son, love at first light
Cruisin' slow, under the moon so bright
Their young hearts racing, feeling just right

1950 Ford, engine roaring loud
Preacher's daughter blushin', head in the clouds
Farmers son smilin', proud and unbowed
Their love story starting, no doubts allowed

On those dirt roads they'll ride all night long
In that red Ford they'll sing their love song
Preacher's daughter and farmers son so strong
Together forever where they belong

{Verse 2: KAROYA SQUAD}

{Part 2: GndiaCC}

In the depths of the darkest groves, I roam
They say I'm the devil, I call it home
I don't bring peace, I bring despair
If you seek destruction, you'll find me there

For those righteous souls, so blindly devout
Steer clear of my fiery route
In shadows deep where hatred breeds
I am the darkness that no light heeds
Beware my wrath, my fury unleashed
In the heart of chaos, I am creased

So if you dare to challenge my throne
Know that in darkness, you're never alone

{Part 3: Finnfishtv}

Can't somebody help her calm her down
Can't somebody help her walk her out
Can't somebody let her know
If he once was my man

I can have oh anytime
I can take him time I want
Won't somebody let her know
I can take him back bro

One I said I'll always be true
He'll come back to me, that's nothing new
