

TH3 AY3S - TellUs2PickUpDaPieces

Broken hearts, shattered dreams, Tell us to pick up the pieces it seems We'll mend what's torn, we'll find our way
In the darkness, we'll see the light of day

Scattered hopes, lost in despair
Tell us to pick up the pieces if you dare
We'll rise again, stronger than before
With each broken piece, we'll build something more

Fragments of love, scattered around
Tell US to pick up the pieces we've found
We'll glue them back together with care
And create a masterpiece beyond compare
