

Fox the Fox - Don't Run Away

She was a runaway in search for a star career
She haunted famous men just to make her star appear
She had that fainted look and a ravishing smile
She would kiss, but never fail to make her kiss worthwhile

She challenged every chance without a doubt of fear
She tracked her fortune down but left a trail of tears
She paid the highest price to cruise among the rich
Her heart abandoned love to be a society bitch

Don't run away
Don't run away
Don't run away

I need you, babe, I need you so
I wanna kiss, but you don't know
I wanna hold you, I'm so alone
My temperature is rising, but still, I feel low

Don't run away

She ran away into a world of make-believes
She ran away to taste the taste of victory
But victory don't last much longer than a day
It don't pay to run away, don't run away
Don't run away
Don't run away
Don't run away

We used to have some time of our own
Now you're a star and always gone

Can't read your letters, can't take your calls
I want you here, not half at whole

Don't run away

I'm not as willing as I used to be
You found your fortune, but what about me?
I need a body that's holding mine
If you don't wanna lose me, then be on time

Don't run away

Hey, hey, hey

Don't run away

Don't run away

I need you, babe, I need you so
I wanna kiss, but you don't know
I wanna hold you, I'm so alone
