

TH3 AY3S - CityL1ghts

Lost in the city lights, miles from home
Searching for a feeling I used to know
Neon signs flicker, guiding my way
But my heart still aches for where I belong

Concrete jungle, endless streets to roam
But nothing compares to the place I call my own
Every step I take, feels like a mile
Back to the love that makes me smile

Sunset paints the sky in shades of gold
Reminding me of where my story's told
I may be far, but in my heart I'm near
Miles from home, but you're always here
