

TH3 AY3S - RockItNow!

{Intro}

Yeah, keep me frfrfr

Pain like a shadow, follows me around

It cuts deep-

{Verse}

Yeah, keep me frfrfr (4X)

Pain like a shadow, follows me around

It cuts deep, but I won't make a sound

Invisible bruises, beneath my skin

But I'll keep on fighting, from within

Pain is a teacher, in disguise

It breaks me down, but makes me wise

Through the tears and the ache

I'll find strength to break the chains

Pain is a storm that rages on

But I'll dance in the rain until it's gone

I'll embrace every scar and every thorn

For in pain, new beginnings are born

Growing up in a world so cold

Where dreams get shattered, stories untold

Reality hits hard, no time for fantasy

Exposed to the harsh truth of humanity

Struggling to find my place in this mess

Broken promises and constant stress

No fairy tales here, just brutal clarity

Exposed to the harsh reality

Every day is a battle, gotta stay strong

In a world where right and wrong can be so wrong

No sugar-coating, just raw brutality

Exposed to the harsh reality

{Outro}
